“ Mrs. Kelly and Mr. Scott, I know it has been awhile since I have since you, but I want to let you know that I am sorry for your loss. Brandon and I have been great friends ever since the third grade at Luthersville Elementary. He was the most likeable human being I have ever met. I will never forgot all the many great times Brandon and I have had together. I want you to know that if you ever need anything, I am always here. Brandon you are going to be missed greatly by all of us. I love you Man!

“ Dear Kelly, I'm sure you probably dont remember me...I met you while you were working for Dr. Vandine. We somehow got on the subject about where we came up with a name for our boys. You told me you were pregnant and at a baseball game. A little boy was sitting close to you and you told me when he looked at you, he had the most beautiful blue eyes you had ever seen! You asked his mom for his name, and she told you it was Brandon. His mom just happened to be my sister...and you named your son ~Brandon ~. I will never forget what a fun talk we had that day as strangers and my heart just cries for what you must be going through. My son knew Brandon and said he was one of the greatest guys you could ever meet! God Bless you, along with all your family and friends. Please know that everyone, everywhere...are praying so hard that God will hold all of you close to his heart and give you peace while he carrys your pain and keeps you strong. I can't imagine Kelly...I'm just lost for any words that could possibly make a difference right now...I'm Constantly praying! Much love to all of you...Dee Tucker

“ Kelly, I was very sad to learn of Brandon's death. I cannot even imagine the devastation that you feel. I believe to lose a child has to be the worst thing a mother could ever go through. I know how very much you loved Brandon. You are in my thoughts and prayers, as are Courtney, Little David, John & Mama. If you need me for anything, please call me and we can cry together. I love you. Donna

“ To all of the family and friends. There is nothing that saddens my heart more to hear of such a tragedy. My prayers and support go up for you all during this dark hour in your lives. May Gods love and grace abound more in your hearts and may his peace be found deep in your souls during this time. Jesus said; John 14 v 27: Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid. Blessing be to all of you. Living By Faith Church

“ It has been probably 10 years since I've seen Brandon Storey. Though we had lost touch of each others lives, I have thought of him every now and then over the years, and whenever I do I can't help but smile. My memories of Brandon come mostly from our middle school years. Brandon and I had earth science together. Always the class clown, he had a perpetual seat adjoining Mr. Bellisle's desk. Of course this often had the adverse effect of focusing the entire class's attention to Brandon, which tended not to be all that conducive to listening to Mr. Bellisle. When I remember Brandon I think of a young man with so much spirit and character who could make me laugh harder than anyone. Brandon was a very sincere and considerate person, and I liked him very much. His passing is a great loss, and it is with much remorse that I send my deepest condolences to his family and friends.

“ Brandon wasn't a friend, he was family to me. He helped pull me out of some of the hardest times of my life. Still just doesn't seem real. He was too genuine of a person. You don't meet people like B+ everyday. His Family, Friends and Taylor are in my prayers. God, we miss you Brandon. You really don't even know, man.

“ There are no words to express how unfortunate this is. I miss him already! He was my Best Friend my whole childhood and I am deeply grieved behind this loss. My heart is very heavy for him. I will keep Brandon and his Family in my heart and prayers. This tragic loss has made me take a step back and a deep breath and realize how blessed I am. From here on out I will always stop and smell the roses for Brandon. I a, very touched by this. I love you guys...

“ Kelly and Family - I am so very sorry for your lost - words can not begin to express. I have found the following to be helpful to me at times like this. May it help to comfort you and your family in these days, weeks, months and years ahead. I love you... SAFELY HOME
I am home in Heaven, dear ones; Oh, so happy and so bright!
There is perfect joy and beauty In this everlasting light. All the pain and grief is over, Every restless tossing passed; I am now at peace forever, Safely home in Heaven at last. Did you wonder I so calmly Trod the valley of the shade? Oh! but Jesus' love illumined Every dark and fearful glade. And He came Himself to meet me In that way so hard to tread; And with Jesus' arm to lean on, Could I have one doubt or dread? Then you must not grieve so sorely, For I love you dearly still: Try to look beyond earth's shadows, Pray to trust our Father's Will. There is work still waiting for you, So you must not idly stand; Do it now, while life remaineth- You shall rest in Jesus' land. When that work is all completed, He will gently call you Home; Oh, the rapture of that meeting, Oh, the joy to see you come! May God Bless and Keep you.

“ Dear Kelly and Family I would like to express my sincere condolences, on the passing of your son Brandon. To find words that are comforting, at this time, is truly difficult. Your pain, is my pain, for I also lost a child, not long ago. A parent is not suppose to outlive their children...we chose him here, but God chose him there. May the Lord bring your family comfort, throughout this most difficult time. It will be a long road, but I will be there for you and yours. May Gods angels, wrap their wings around Brandon, and take him home.....Godspeed ,Brandon very sincerely, your friend Eva
