“ I am Brandon's great aunt on his grandfather' side. Stan Toler. Stan found us a few years ago as we never knew we had a big brother. I have only had to honor of meeting Tim Toler and his sweet family but, sad to say, none other. I am so very sorry for this tragedy and your loss. Nothing can take the place of a young man. I don't know y'all's circumstances or why the Toler family was not acknowledged. But know this. He was my family, too, and while I never knew him I loved the thought and the idea of him. I hope we can all pause and put the past in the past and move forward toward establishing a relationship with other relatives. I have left my email address. My arms and heart are open. I hope y'all's are, too. This is the only avenue I had to be in touch. God bless you all during this time of sorrow and always. Molly
