

Brenda McMichael Ford

August 26, 1963 - October 21, 2020

Dedicated Mama & Grammy, Brenda Jean Ford passed away Wednesday, October 21, 2020 in Newnan, Georgia.

She was born to Cecil McMichael and Shelby Taylor McMichael on August 26, 1963 in Newnan, Georgia. A lifelong Newnan native, she graduated from Newnan High School in 1981. Soon thereafter, she began her 30 year career with the United States Postal Service where she made a second family out of her colleagues. With an infectious laugh and giving heart, she regularly touched the lives of any with whom she came in contact. Of all of her many accomplishments, she was most proud of her two daughters and granddaughter, cheering them on in all of their endeavors. She loved her entire family fiercely and treated her nieces and nephews as though they were her own. She was especially happy on any of her many adventures—traveling, boating & fishing, and motorcycling—with her soulmate, Reggie.

With a heavy heart, she left this world to seek peace—all the while leaving this world better than how she found it. To know Brenda was to love her.

She is survived by her loving soulmate, Mason “Reggie” Day; daughters: Stephanie Cecilia Ford and Kasey Jay (Robinson) Harvill along with son-in-law Andrew Mark Harvill, Jr. and granddaughter Shelby Eloise Harvill; mother Shelby McMichael, brother Dale McMichael, and sister Sheryl Seals; her nieces and nephews and great nieces and nephews.

A celebration of Brenda's life will be held on Monday, October 26, 2020 at 4 o'clock in the afternoon in the Chapel of McKoon Funeral Home, 38 Jackson Street, in Newnan with Andrew Mark Harvill, Jr. officiating. The family will receive friends from 3 o'clock in the afternoon until the service begins at the funeral home. The family requires that all guests wear masks and practice social distancing.

In lieu of flowers, the family asks that contributions be made to One Roof of Newnan, Georgia (<https://oneroofoutreach.org/>) an organization near and dear to Brenda's heart. Condolences can be expressed to the family online at www.mckoon.com.

“ My dear friend Brenda, oh how you will missed.
All of our “sleepovers” growing up was such a blast. We kept no secrets from each other and I loved that.
From catching tadpoles and frogs ..to trick or treating every year together. I'll cherish the memories forever.
I love you Boo.
Lifting family in prayer for a sweet comfort.

“ “Aunt” Brenda was a huge part of my childhood! I'll never forget how much she laughed and how goofy she was! And though I wasn't her daughter she treated me just like her own! I've spent many nights at aunt Brenda's house with her daughter Kasey and it was truly some of the funnest nights of my childhood! I'm thankful the aunt Brenda is safe and happy In Gods arms!

“ To Casey and Stephanie : There is nothing, and I mean nothing, that equals the loss of our mother. I wept for you both when I got the news. So many people are grieving with you now.
To Sheryl and Dale: I remember fondly the MANY days I spent at your house. I always felt welcome, and I clearly recall how you tolerated Brenda. She was a live wire even as a youngster!

“ I am brokenhearted to hear of Brenda's death. I worked with her when Kasey was just a little girl. She kept us in stitches and I was glad when she retired and was able to enjoy life some. We never know what life is going to bring. My grandson died the 15th so I hope that Brenda is in Heaven telling him stories about his grandma and making him smile. She will be missed but will forever live in our heart and memories. To Reggie, her girls and family, I've been praying that you can find some peace at this difficult time and will continue to do so.
