“ Lou, Margaret informed me tonight on e-mail about Robbie. You know that my heart and my prayers are with you and the family tonight. You do know that you and Robbie were and always be two of my favorite friends. I will ask for a special prayer for you and the family tomorrow in church. May God bless you and comfort you in this time of grief and need. Always remember that you and Robbie will ALWAYS hold a very dear and precious place in my heart. Love you and may God bless. Charlie

“ Paw Paw you were the most important man in my life. You were like a father to me. It hurts that I no longer have you to talk to about things like work, working on lawnmowers, and fishing, but most of all listening to stories of your life. But it helps knowing that we will be able to do it all again someday. Paw Paw I love and miss you very much and keep those fish biting until the day we meet again. love you lots Terry Brown

“ Annie and Robin; It is with a sad heart that I hear of the passing of Buford, but at the same moment, I am very thankful to have known him. I think maybe that he may have been my inspiration to choose the career from which I recently retired, driving trucks for the past 25 years. It is knowing people like you and Buford that make this life worth living. God bless you . Jessie Lee Ferrell [ Life of Georgia ]
