“ Polly and Steve, I am so sorry for the loss of your father and my dear friend, Byron. I truly cherish the memories I have of Byron and the times he spent with us. He was a regular feature around our home in the 80s and 90s. Byron was always a big help to us and he shared his wit, wisdom, and musical talent generously. He played guitar and fiddle and sang and yodeled with a natural harmony with my husband, Rick. Between the two of them they remembered hundreds of rock, country, and gospel songs. I sure do miss those happy times; maybe Byron and Rick are jamming again. RIP Byron Wood. Love and peace to all the family. Lisa Cape

“ I'm so sorry for your loss. I too know the sting of death. The memories of good times will carry you thru these sad days. I hope that you can surround yourself with family and those who can build you up with the comfort you need. There is the best support found in God's word. Please read Isaiah 25:8. Death will soon be a thing of the past and there will be no more tears. Take care of yourself and let the scriptures fill you with hope and promise.

“ Byron always came to work on my alarm and smoke detectors in my three story house I sold six years ago. He was always so friendly and I felt like I'd had a visit from a family member after his visits. I want to extend my deepest condolences to all of his loved ones. God bless and keep you.
