“ Carl was our coffee guy at welcome station, when I first met him I was playing a game on my phone ,I had to battle a villain on this game called cupcake carl , I told him that was my nickname for him , he said miss Elva you can call me whatever you want to. From then on I called him cupcake carl. He was such a nice person , me and my coworkers will truly miss him .

“ Carl was a special person with a gentle and kind spirit. I was fortunate enough to work with Carl for many years since he came to Georgia as part of the Atlanta Millstone Team. He would often talk about Beth, Kevin and Kaley during our chats - his love and pride came shinning through in every conversation.
