

Carla Jo Stubbs

August 14, 1938 - June 14, 2016

CARLA JO (DAVIS) STUBBS passed away Tuesday June 14, 2016 after a year and a half courageous battle with lung cancer. She was born on August 14, 1938 in Decatur, Alabama to John Bernard and Georgia Loueda Hardeman Davis. The Davis family moved to Atlanta in the early 1950's. She attended Joe Brown High School before transferring to Russell High School. She was married to Roy Lamar Stubbs of Tyrone, Georgia. During their lives together they had four children Rhonwyn (Ronne) Stubbs Bonds, John Stubbs, Mitchell Stubbs and Nancy Stubbs Taylor. She suffered the unbearable pain of losing her son John at the age of three years old to a brain tumor. Jo and Lamar raised their family in College Park, Georgia. Jo suffered from a hereditary degenerative eye disease called Retinitis Pigmentosa which rendered her legally blind in her early thirties. She continued to be active in her community including being the Softball Commissioner for The Old National Athletic Association. She and her husband retired to East Point, Florida until his death in 1993. She moved to Coweta County, Georgia in 1999 and resided there until her death.

Jo Stubbs was a woman of warm heart, quick wit and good humor and was devoted to her family. She helped raise many other children as well. Always stepping in to offer a roof, clothes and food to others in need. There are many people who count Jo Stubbs as their "second mother" including Bill Sims, Pam Mitchell Mason, Trent Mitchell, Lisa Mitchell Anderson, Gary Gruber, Pam Miler Boone, Veronica Angell and Charva Stiggers Poole among others.

She was preceded in death by her parents, husband, son, a sister Julia Eloise Johnson and her brother Kenneth Dale Davis. She is survived by her three children Ronne (Mike) Bonds, Mitchell Stubbs and Nancy (Darrin) Taylor, her grandchildren Alex (Kerron) Bonds, Justin (Dixie) Bonds, Kera Thompson (Stacey) Lane, Nicholas Thompson and Amanda Taylor (Jeremy) Born. Seven Great Grandchildren; Seth Bonds, Sara Bonds, Brooke Lane, Gannon Bonds, Grayson Bonds, Hayleigh Born and Levi Born. Her sister Patricia Davis (Lewis) Carter and Sister in Law Diane Davis (Bill) Howell. Nieces and Nephews Michael Carter, Jodi Carter (Warren, Jr.) Bond, John (Robyn) Davis, Chris Davis and Kimberly Davis (Tracy) Greene. Grand Nieces and Grand Nephews Kendale Davis, Luke Bell, Whitney Bell Andres, Zach Greene and Hannah Greene. And a host of many very dear friends.

“ I remember most the celebration pool parties after winning an especially hard game...Ms Jo would always make us wait the thirty minutes after eating before getting back in and not a minute sooner!!!! I'm so glad I got the chance to speak with her after so many lost years...gone but not forgotten!!!

“ Dearest Mitchell, My heart goes out to you. I never met your mother but that she instilled such love and devotion in her son speaks volumes to me. I never knew a son who looked so forward to his mother's two (three?) month long visits. I wish for you to have someone in your life who loves you as you loved your mom.

Love always,

“ My dear Mitchell...I never met your momma so my tribute to her would be to say that she raised a wonderful son.

CarlaJo - you did good. Mitchell is a good human. Kind and loving. Smart and wicked funny. Empathetic and caring. Generous and talented. No nonsense and straight shooter. Friend to so many. Heart of gold. My guess is you shared those qualities too.

Mitchell you were your Mom's rock and I know you loved her so very dearly.

I hope she and my Mom, Rachel, meet up. Their laughter would reach the far corners of heaven.

*Love to youxoxox

Dearest, darling Mitchell,

I only met your Mom a few times but each time she made me laugh out loud. You mother's wit was only superseded by her warmth. I always felt I knew your mom better than I actually did, because you shared so many wonderful and often funny stories about her over so many years.

This I know, you loved your mother with all your heart. You made us love her through you. You have always been an amazing, compassionate and loving son. She was so proud of you and you can be equally as proud for being the son that you were for her.

We send you, your family and extended family our deepest condolences. We love you to pieces and we grieve for your loss.
