“ Larry and Family, I will never forget how Carol and I talked for hours on the phone laughing till we cried. I miss her terribly. She brought insanity to my life when it was too sane!! I love you Carol! Prayers to all of Carol's family

“ I remember growing up with Amber, coming over to your house to play and hang out in front of the garage turning up the the Big Boom Box and dancing around. I remember Carol loving music she would dancing while she cooked. She was always a particular person everything had its place and she liked it to be there :) she wasn't afraid to tell you either. When she relaxed and let her hair down and smiled and laughed while enjoying a tune she really shined. I see her happy and dancing in a well put together kitchen. With a large match book collection! Decorated with owls! without pain smiling down on you and your family from heaven. You and your family are all in my thoughts and prayers ~ Love Heather ~

“ Larry, Martha and I will always miss Carol's wonderful friendliness. Those "family" dinners were always more special when we were joined by you and Carol. She will be missed, but her light will shine for a long, long time. The Stenders
