“ I just feel that I needed to say that words can not be enough to express the feelings that run through me..I never thought Carol would not be there,she alway's been there.. not only when I wanted a place to lay my head or just talk on the phone.. this is all new to me,whenever I knocked Carol's there, that was a Given.I do feel so ashamed now that I did not let her realize just how much she really meant to me. I heard a knock on my door in more recent times.. (When I opened it,there stood Carol) I haven't seen or talked to her in so long,but she was wanting something this time.. To give me a cake(That she baked!) it was my birthday..My heart goes out most of all to her family and those that she has touched..Carol will be Treasured & Missed forever

“ My sympathy goes to Gab's Family. I will truly miss her. We started out in Room 5 and ended up in RR1. I remember the last time she was in the hospital that I knew of. She had mini strokes, seizures and a heart attack she told me after she got out of the hospital. She had not done very well since then. She and I was partners in a spade game that night. She told me she did not feel right and thought she had another stroke. I said lets quit and you go to the ER or call an ambulance. She was so stubborn she said she would wait till morning. I knew she did not want to wake her sister and tell her. She was always thinking of her sis and taking care of her the best she could. I so admired all she did for her sis and others and her beautiful web pages. Gab you was a true friend and I Thank God I got to spend many wonderful years playing spades, emails and chatting with you. Rest in Peace My Friend Love Ya, DeJae Renfrow

“ Dearest Family of Gabs, Although we never met face to face, when you entered the room to play spades there she was!! Her hello's to all her friends, You couldn't help but like her bubbly personality. We played many games together or sat and chatted of everyday things. I will miss you Gab, thank you for your friendship from a distance. Jessie

“ Sissy and Family, I remember when I was new to spades and happened to enter the room Momma which was about 10 years ago. She taught me how to play the game and we grew close. It was a honor when she started calling me her her online daughter. Then she introduced me to Betty which which then became my sissy. We enjoyed all the times we played and even when Sis and i would lose (lol). Momma brought so much to the table and shared not just her wit, web pages, comforting and yes even a smack up side of the head when us kids would mess up but it was all done with so much love and compassion. Momma will be missed more the words can say. I love you Sissy

“ My God be with all of you during this time of sorrow. I guess I've known Gab since we all played in RR5 and she was a great person. I know I am so saddened by her passing. She will be so missed by all of us. Again, I am so sad but she is with God now and there will be no more pain or suffering, only happiness. I bet there's a hoyle site up there somewhere and she'll be right there playing. Bennie Combs Slvrmoonbeams

“ Dear family of GAB's, I am so very sorry to hear of the loss of a great friend and part of our spade family. I informed the family of players and prayers of her passing this morning. It was tough to do, and GAB will be missed by us all. She was a great person to play in a good card game, and I know she has joined others around a table in heaven for a game already. I will miss her poems and her website, but most of all, I will miss her. Thank you for sharing your loved one with us for all these years. My sympathy goes to you all. God bless, CAB101
