

Carolyn "Ann" Antoinette Ledsinger

January 10, 1928 - June 27, 2021

Ann was born at Emory Hospital in Atlanta, GA on January 10, 1928 to Julian Anthony Whatley, Sr. and Carolyn Whatley, both who preceded her in death. She passed away peacefully and surrounded by her family in the afternoon of June 27, 2021. She was excited to dance with Jesus in heaven as well as to be reunited with her husband, Charles Lewis Ledsinger. In addition to her parents and Lewis, she was preceded in death by her sister, Elizabeth Osgood (Richard Osgood).

In her younger years, she was a debutante and attended NAPS School for Girls, which later became Westminster. She also attended Stetson University. She met the love of her life, Lewis Ledsinger, while attending The University of Georgia (UGA). The two met in biology class at UGA where they became lab partners, shared a telescope, and later fell in love. They married on June 6, 1950. Shortly after, they settled in Atlanta, later moving to Roswell to raise their three children. She was an active member of Roswell Presbyterian Church and later Mount Paran Church of God, in Atlanta, GA.

Lewis and Ann's retirement took them to Cashiers, NC, where they built their dream log cabin home and helped start Pine Grove Worship Center with the support of Mount Paran Church of God and Pastor Mike Atkins. In 2005, Ann moved to Newnan to be close to her daughter, Judy, and became active in her community. The last few years, she resided at Wesley Woods of Newnan.

During her time at Wesley Woods, Ann became an avid card player with her group of friends.

Ann loved God, church, her family and her many friends. Through her smile, warm personality and unwavering faith, she brought many people to the Lord, which was her life's purpose.

A celebration of her life will be held at McKoon Funeral Home on Saturday, July 31 at 11:00 am in the chapel with Pastor Mike Atkins and Chaplain Sharon Edgar officiating. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to Southwest Christian Care Hospice, 7225 Lester Rd, Union City, GA. 30296. The family would like to express our deepest appreciation to Wesley Woods and Southwest Christian Hospice for the love and care they gave Ann.

She is survived by her brother, Julian Anthony Whatley, III (Linda Whatley), Carolyn Ledsinger Scharnberger (Larry Scharnberger) of Cape Coral, FL., Charles Lewis Ledsinger (Gerry Ledsinger) of Cumming GA, and Julia Ledsinger Dixon (Bill Dixon) of Newnan, GA. Also, her three grandchildren Kristina Howell Kidd (Brandon Kidd), Elizabeth Ledsinger Napolitano (Chris Napolitano) and W. Sterling Dixon, III and four great-grandchildren, Isaac Kidd, Bishop Kidd, Collin Napolitano and Nolan Napolitano, along with her many nieces and nephews.

"I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith." II Timothy 4:7

Condolences may be expressed to the family online at www.mckoon.com.

“ What a dear godly woman and life well lived! I don't know how mom would have survived a difficult time in her life without the love and friendship of Ann and her family! Ann had true Christian love and a life well lived. I remember chats around Ann's kitchen table with loads of laughter! Ann was always smiling! Also many Thanksgivings together and trips up to the cabin in NC. We had many times visiting together at Mt. Paran.

Ann is dancing with Jesus and reunited with her beloved husband! I am not sad for her. But I do know that grief and sadness is a heavy burden for the family to bear. With great love comes great sadness upon parting. You will all be in our thoughts and prayers! Hold fast to your faith because the separation is temporary. We will see her again! Love to all, Susan Griffin and Donna Thrift

“ I know that June 27th was a day of celebration for Ann. She looked forward to the day she would stand before Jesus and hear the words, "Well Done! Good and Faithful Servant, enter into the joy of the Lord!" I'll bet Jesus did notice that beautiful dress you had on... May we all look death in the face with such excitement and zeal. God bless you Ann for your grace and faith.

"For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first: Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord." 1 Thess 4:16-17

I pray that the zeal of Ann Ledsinger be upon her very family looking forward to the time they can all be reunited with Ann and in the presence of Jesus Christ Our Lord. Praying for the family and looking forward to talking with you in the future.

Aww Aunt J, that obituary is really sweet. I liked reading about how your mom and dad met, so sweet. It sounds like a really nice love story and life well lived. I love and miss you and hope you are getting through this tough time as well as can be expected. xoxox, robby

Judy, I watched this today since I couldn't be with you at the funeral home (I'll send you a message on Facebook later). Anyway, it was a beautiful tribute. My favorite was all the pictures at the end. Your mother was so beautiful, and her face showed the love she felt for all of you in every picture! Plus, I got to see pictures of Sterling from when he was little. I remember him as a little boy when we first moved across the street from y'all, and it was sweet remembering him at that age. You and Bill are wonderful neighbors, and I am so thankful for the years we've lived in these Hills! I am praying for you and your family. God be with all of you!
