“ My heart goes out to the granddaughter that Carolyn loved so much particularly and the other family members as well. I loved Carolyn and was the one who hired her at Penney's. Our birthdays were right together and we shared many. It is hard to believe I won't see that smile or have those arms to share another hug until the hereafter.

“ I worked with Carolyn years ago at Penney's, she was always a delight. Her smile would always warm your heart and she smiled all of the time. She was always so pretty and talked about her family allot and she was so proud of her family. My heart and prayers go out to you, she will truly be missed in the world but will always remain in our hearts.
