Mom,
It's only been a few days since you've been gone, but it already feels like an eternity. Every day I keep wanting to call you as a reflex, then I remember you're gone. We are all trying to adjust to that fact, but I don't know if we ever actually will. It's funny that I can think of a soliloquy of things to say and write, but when I actually start typing, all I can really think of is how much we miss you already. I can still hear your laughter just as clear as day and would give anything to hear it again. Tell Dad we miss him too.
Love Always,
Ryan

“Mama, what will we do without you here looking out for us all like you always have? I don't even know how to begin a life without you in it. I know if you have anything to say about it, you will still be helping us all from that side of heaven. Thank you for being there always for me and the girls, we will never forget you and you will live in our hearts forever. I will hold on to all the wonderful memories in my heart until I see you again. If I close my eyes, I can see you with Dad, your Mom and Uncle Billy and that makes my heart happy. Jesus who you have taught us about from an early age, you are now with and that brings me peace Mama. One sweet day on God's celestial shore, I will meet you and Dad there and oh what a wonderful day that will be. Until then the girls and I will live our lives to the fullest and make you proud. I will miss you every day of my life. I love you Mama now and forever. April

*I'm going to miss you so much, Nanny. I wish you were still here with us. Seeing how much faith you had and how much love you had for God strengthened my faith and helped me put my trust in God. I will always miss you and love you. I hope you knew how many people loved you. I'm glad you're at peace now. Until next time, Nanny.
