“ Dear Family of Ms. Williams. I am very sorry that Ms. Williams was not able to receive a life-saving lung transplant here at Mayo Clinic before her health declined. She was such a lovely and compliant patient. It was an honor knowing her and being her lung transplant coordinator and I will miss her.

“ We knew Carol by going to church with her at Mt. Pleasant, and through visits to the beauty shop. She was always ready with a sweet smile and upbeat attitude in spite of her health problems. Our sincere sympathy to her family and friends.

“ I met Carol in 2016, when my husband and I arrived in Wisconsin to await his transplant. From the moment I met her, she became a part of my heart. She was such a huge part of our transplant family. Her smile and wonderful hugs and her excitement when she would come to play with our Madison kitty. The truest heart and the strength of a lioness. She touched many, and will be missed so deeply. I love this woman with all my heart. She is in Gods hands now. Rest now my friend. Until I see you again.

“ Carol was so much more than my (fabulous) hair dresser for many years. She was like a 2nd Mom to me during a very challenging time in my younger years. She was always loving, honest and encouraging to me. She shined a beautiful light in my life and she will forever shine a light in my heart. I pray for comfort for you Mitch and Michael and all of the family.

Love and Hugs,
Jenny
