

Carolyn Diane Witt

November 15, 1941 - April 12, 2020

Ms. Carolyn Diane Witt, age 78 of Newnan, went on to the more abundant life that awaits us all on Easter Sunday April 12, 2020. Ms. Witt was born on November 15, 1941 in Washington, D.C. to Roy Bruce Witt and Dorothy Purvis Witt both of whom pre-deceased her. Carolyn retired from the Federal Civil Aeronautics Board and the National Institutes of Health before starting a pet sitting business in Washington D.C. She moved to Newnan 10 years ago to be close to family, and was a member of Sacred Heart of Jesus Catholic Church in Atlanta.

She was a gem of a soul, rich in character, generous in compassion, refreshingly frank and direct, and always up for adventure. Her volunteer efforts spanned across her love of animals and several dimensions of relieving human suffering.

A service to celebrate Mrs. Witt's life will be held at a later date.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests that a contribution be made in her honor to the Atlanta Humane Society at <https://atlantahumane.org>.

Condolences may be left for the family online at www.mckoon.com.

“ Had the pleasure of meeting Carolyn at Newnan Health and Rehab, It was a highlight of my Wednesday mornings to spend time to get to know and commune in our faith together. May you find comfort you in this Irish toast;

*We cannot share this sorrow
If we haven't grieved a while.
Nor can we feel another's joy
Until we've learned to smile.*

God Bless!
