Cathy always had a big smile for everyone. Me and my husband both worked with Tony in maintenance with Barry and we knew Cathy threw the credit union. She may be gone but not forgotten.

“ When you become friends while you are young you hold these people in your heart forever. I wasn't ready to say goodbye. I know she loved her family like a mama bear. You are all in our hearts.

“ Oh, my heart aches I am so lucky to have known you and called you my friend but mostly you were my work mom. Life will not be the same without you in it. Even though we saw each other so much less in the years since you stopped working with us, you were always a call or text away. Thank you for loving me and for being the most truly selfless person I have ever met.
