“ It still seems strange to drive past or walk outside and not see Cecil tending to his yard or watering the plants and flowers. It was always nice just to walk over to the fence to have a short chat or say hello. Thoughts and prayers are with the family.

“ My thoughts and prayers are with you. I worked with Cecil and Fred and Mr Dog at FedEx. We drove trucks back and forth from Atlanta to Columbus OH for years, until I gave it up about 8 years ago. Boy at the stories, laughter and fun we had. We love comparing notes about the different flowers, trees, and vegetables that we grew. I have a flower bed now that is full of the day lily's that came from his yard. He and my husband Jack loved telling the trucking stories. I will deeply miss him. Until I see you again Cecil.

“ My wife, Candi, and I only got to know Cecil for a few short years when we were lucky enough to be invited by Cathy Adams to be a part of that wide circle of friends that knew and loved him.

He was a kind man of gentle temperament who seemed to make those of us around him smile and laugh no matter the topic.

We will miss him.
