

Charles Edward Brown

December 19, 1938 - May 25, 2010

Charles Edward “Charley” Brown, 71, died May 25, 2010. Charley was born December 19, 1938, in Crosscut, Texas. He was named a high school football All American from Cleburne High School in 1957. As a graduate of the United States Military Academy in West Point, NY, he served seven years in the Army Corps of Engineers with tours of duty in France and Vietnam.

Charles moved his family to Newnan in 1983 and opened the first office for Edward D. Jones. Later, he became the financial advisor for Synovus at the Bank of Coweta, retiring in 2002.

Charley is survived by his wife of 46 years, Linda; son David Brown & his wife Susan; daughter Ginger Hackett & her husband John; and grandchildren: Haley Brown, Matthew Brown, Danielle Hackett, and John Charles Hackett. Also surviving are his three sisters: Patsy Brown, Wanda Kammerdiener, and Martha Schow, all of Texas.

His family requests that in lieu of flowers, donations be sent to the International Myeloma Foundation (www.myeloma.org).

A celebration will be held at the family residence, Tuesday, June 1st, from 7:00 – 9:00 pm, with thoughts and prayers by Steve Beers at 7:30 pm.
