“ Uncle Charles was the most popular beloved uncle among all neices and nephews in the family. He always had a big smile, words of love, and a wonderful memory to recall, any time you were around him. He has gone on to stand along side my daddy (Franklin) and the rest of his family with Jesus to welcome him there. He now has his reward. We will miss him oh so much, and will be with him again some day. With loving memories, Elaine Ayers (neice)
