

Charles Lambert Kabrich

September 7, 1946 - September 17, 2021

Charles Lambert Kabrich (Big Charlie), 75 of Sharpsburg, passed away Friday, September 17, 2021 at Piedmont Fayette Hospital. Charlie was born September 7, 1946 in Ahoskie, North Carolina to the late Grover Vernon Kabrich and Hannah Winbourne Kabrich. In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by daughter, Lora Marie Romo.

Charlie had a long career with General Motors where he was a tool & die maker and shop chairman with the Union of Auto workers (UAW local 663). He was proud of his accomplishments and service as union representative with the UAW where he retired in 1999.

Charlie never lost his passion for bowling, was an active member in the community, and was the president of the lake association for many years where he lives. He devoted his life to helping others and making good memories for others.

The memorial service is 6:00 pm Thursday, September 23, 2021 in the chapel of McKoon Funeral Home with Pastor Terry Calhoun officiating. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to the Newnan Coweta Humane Society, 60 Hwy 29 N, Newnan, GA 30263 or www.nchsrescue.org/donate

Condolences may be expressed online at www.mckoon.com
