

Charles Raymond Mapp

March 31, 1946 - July 31, 2012

Mr. Charles Raymond Mapp, age 66, of Newnan received the healing of his Heavenly Father on July 31, 2012 while a patient at Piedmont Newnan Hospital.

He truly had fought the good fight and kept the course after receiving a kidney transplant years ago. He faced this last illness with steely determination during his six week hospitalization. Charles was a native of Newnan and was born March 31, 1946. His parents were the late Alvin Ace Mapp and Annie Ruth Lewis Mapp. Prior to his illness, he was employed at The William L. Bonnell Company in the drafting department as a Lead CAD/CAM operator. He was a member of First Baptist Church of Newnan.

Surviving is his wife, Debbie Meade Mapp. He has one surviving sibling, William H. "Boots" Mapp and several nieces and nephews. Visitation with the family was at the funeral home on Thursday evening. The funeral service for Mr. Mapp will be on Friday, August 3, 2012 at 2:00 PM in the McKoon Funeral Home Chapel with Reverend Doug Bearden, Dr. Melvin Payne and Reverend Jerry Walker officiating. Interment will be in Oak Hill Cemetery. Memorials to honor Charles may be made to The Coweta County Geneological Society, P.O. Box 1014, Newnan, GA 30264. Online condolences may be expressed at www.mckoon.com.

“ Debbie, I have been thinking about you everyday! It's hard to know exactly what to say, but I still want you to know that you are thought of, and will continue to be in my prayers! Watch for Charlie to visit you, you know me, and how very much I believe in that. I know that he will always be near you. One thing that my mom did, when we lost my dad, was to write in a journal. As if you're writing to Charlie. It really helped my mom, and I hope it can, in some way, help you too! Much love to you! Tracy

“Debbie, I am so sorry for the loss of your Charlie. May the Lord bless you with comfort, healing, and peace. I wish I was in Georgia to see you, someday I will be and I will give you a great big hug. You are blessed to have so many people who love you. Lean on those that are around you. I know you will feel Charlie's love always with you.

“Aunt Debbie, There are no words except that I am sorry and that I love you. I know we have not spent much time together over the years as other loved ones in the family have passed and that makes me so sad. I will keep you in my prayers. Although I didn't express it over the past few years, I loved Uncle Charles very much. Scott and Eva have many more memories than I, but I am thankful to have had such a wonderful Uncle in my life. Love, Michelle

“ Debbie, I am so sorry to hear about Charlie. I did not know he was having trouble again. He has lived a long time since the transplant. I always think about you when I pass the house there at Shepherd Drive, you and Charlie were good neighbors to Mom & Dad. You are in my thoughts and prayers. I know the loss you are feeling and I pray that God will comfort you and give you His Peace as only He can at a time like this. Love You, Syble

“ Dear Debbie, Words never seem sufficient at a time like this. I remember the numbness I felt when my husband passed away and my heart goes out to you. We know that Charlie is in a far better place. I'm quite positive a heavenly choir was singing him through the golden gate. Meanwhile, you're left behind. It's okay to cry. It's okay to scream. It's okay to let out your feelings. Expelling those emotions is what is going to make you okay. Just endure these days and keep praying until God fills you with an inner knowledge that Charlie really is okay and then you will be on your way to finding a peace and understanding that will astound you in its simplicity. My prayers remain with you.

“ Dear Debbie, I am so sorry for your loss. I have had you and Charlie on my mind and heart for weeks. I am sorry he is no longer physically by you. I will miss the stories and praying for him when he had his check-ups. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family as you go through the coming hours and days. I am feeling your pain- as only you can understand. Lean on all who love you and support you. You will get through this and let us help you! God be with you and give you peace. Many hugs and much love to you. I love you dear friend.
