“ This past Spring during our annual golf trip to Pensacola, Fla, I was fortunate enough to share a cart and play two rounds of golf with Chuck. He was weak from the chemo treatments and couldn't play all of the holes, but he kept right on going. He loved his golf! I will always treasure the moments I shared with Chuck, he was a good friend. All of his golfing buddies in Kentucky will miss him. To his family and very close friends you have my thoughts and prayers during this difficult time.
