“ My heart breaks for all of you. We did have good times growing up. In the summer we would spend a lot of time together at Granny and Papa's playing under the big oak tree. He tried to teach me to ride a "big" bike. I will never forget it. He got me all set and headed my downhill at their house, I did not know how to stop and I went straight into the wood pile. I was fine, but not sure about the bike. So many good memories. Praying for peace and contentment that comes from knowing our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Love to all. Joy Whitworth.

“ Reba, Tina, and Charlie
Y'all are in our thoughts and prayers. Charles was always a sweet cousin. We use to have some good times when we were all growing up. I can remember going to their house and spending the night and they would let me sleep on the top bunk. I hate that when we grow up everyone seems to go their own way. I wish the good times could last forever. I know when we all get to Heaven we will have some more of the good times.

“ I am so shocked and saddened to hear about Charles. I did not know that he had been sick until my daughter told me several days ago. Reba, I know how devastating it is to lose your spouse. Just rejoice in all the memories the two of you shared together. I remember when Lawson and I got married, we built a house across the road from Elbert and Louise. Charles and Howard were just young boys at that time. In fact the entire community consisted of Hughie's and Orr's. My thoughts and prayers go out to the Orr family. May God wrap his loving arms around you and help you to find peace, as only he can.
