“ My dear friend it is with great sadness that I realize you are gone but what a legacy of love you have left behind through your husband, children, grandchildren and friends. I have written and rewritten these sentences many times trying to find the right words knowing that you would have easily written some beautiful sentiment that would have had everybody crying and laughing. Through your friendship I did not find a judge or jury but someone who would listen and care and tell me to get over myself when needed. We became friends through work but bonded over life. I will miss you but have been left with so many good memories of caring, love and friendship. Thank you for being my friend.

Remember Me by Anthony Dodson

*Speak of me as you have always done.
Remember the good times, laughter, and fun.*

*Share the happy memories we've made.
Do not let them wither or fade.*

*I'll be with you in the summer's sun
And when the winter's chill has come.*

*I'll be the voice that whispers in the breeze.
I'm peaceful now, put your mind at ease.*

*I've rested my eyes and gone to sleep,
But memories we've shared are yours to keep.*

*Sometimes our final days may be a test,
But remember me when I was at my best.*

*Although things may not be the same,
Don't be afraid to use my name.*

Let your sorrow last for just a while.

Comfort each other and try to smile.

I've lived a life filled with joy and fun.

Live on now, make me proud of what you'll become “ Love that picture - it's a perfect representation of how he would wrap himself around your heart with his fabulous wit, humor, and love of life. As selfishly sad as it is to lose him, that smile will always make me smile. I feel so fortunate to have time in life as his friend. He leaves those who had the privilege of knowing him evidence that unconditional love is possible. He showed us unconditional love of his children, his granddaughter, his friends, and especially dear Michael.

Michael, we hold you in our hearts. You are an inspiration of how to live out the vows we make to our partners in life.

“ Working with Chuck over the years was always fun. I loved his sassy sense of humor. I am so happy that he found great love with Michael, who made him so happy. He loved his children and his darling granddaughter. I was just one of many many friends who loved him. He will be dearly missed.

Michael, Lauren, Brian and Family...
Chuck was a ray of sunshine and always the life of the party! Wells Fargo brought us together but he was a friend to keep long after he left here. I know how much he loved you all and I am proud to have called him my friend. I wish you all the best. ❤️

Michael, although I haven't had the chance to meet you personally, I feel that I know you through Chuck's kind and loving words about you. When Chuck and I worked together he always made me laugh when there were difficult days - truly a ray of sunshine always! His love for family and friends was strong and truly felt. His love for God, family and friends was always above all else. I will truly miss the sunshine he brought to me and others.

Michael - Tom, Dakota and I were so excited we had the opportunity to meet you and Chuck for dinner when we swung through Newnan last year. Chuck was a dear friend and we kept in touch after he left Wells and then I did as well. His outlook on life was always positive and his courageous battle is a testament to his nature - don't let anything get you down. His encouraging words were uplifting and inspirational. He touched many lives, including ours. He was loved and so are you. We will miss him.

I met Chuck 17 years ago when I worked with him as a customer at Old Kent. We hit it off as professional colleagues and became friends quickly. I could tell some stories about our escapades, as I'm sure many people could. Chuck was amazing human being and will be missed. I am so happy he found Michael. He was blessed in many ways and we are blessed to have had him in our lives. Rest in peace, my friend.
