“ Dear Roy, Elissa, Elaine, and Ryan, Ellison was my tennis partner and I loved her. From the moment I played across the net from her, there was something in each of us that made the other play harder, and better. She prodded my competitive spirit as I did hers. We loved egging each other on. She had a terrific down-the-line alley shot that I am working on perfecting to compete and use in her name so a part of her tennis game continues on in me. We also discussed her spiritual longings and her desire to have a relationship with The One. I hope you will read some of the books she has. I believe that life doesn't end, only changes. So while Ellison's body is no longer working for her, her spirit lives on and continues its soul journey. She is a tender spirit, a sweet soul, and she will continue in our lives as softly and lightly as morning dew. I will keep you all in my prayers as your hearts do the work of grieving. Thank you for sharing her with me and the Sandestin Emeralds tennis team. We were better because of her. Chris

“ Ellison was a sweet, kind Lady, and will always be remembered by the tennis team here in Destin. She had a wonderful, competitive spirit, and was amazing on the court.. She truly loved the game and it showed. We shall always remember her and her bravery during her last great challenge. Our thoughts, prayers and best wishes go out to her husband and children.

“ Chef - My heart breaks for you and your family. It was just a couple of weeks ago that I had the pleasure of meeting your sweet bride. Such a gentle, sweet woman. I pray that God reaches to you - and wraps His arms around your family in order to comfort you through this difficult time.
