“ At first I was sceptic about posting this picture but all those years ago Chris and I thought we had life all figured out we were 18 and 19 yrs old and ready to take on the world and I remember us being inseparable and oh man we were in love we had it all figured it out until one day we didn't then things just blew out of the water we went our separate ways I didn't see Chris for sometime until we reconnected on FB and it was almost 20 yrs later we bumped into one another into an AA meeting in Chauncey let's just we remained friends didn't hold any grudges from the past because I too know what Chris was going through and it's a thought road to travel and for you his family my heart goes out to you because I can't tell you all the sleepless nights my family had to go go through so when I say I feel your pain I truly do you all are in my thoughts and prayers and I pray you all find peace

“ Chris was an amazing man. His heart was full of love for you, his four children and Paisley. He could talk for hours about you all, and how proud he was of each of you and how ambitious you all are. He asked me to make sure that if anything ever happened to him to let you all know that, even as your lives grow and change, and you become the amazing people he always knew you would become, to stay close and in touch. It was very important to him!

He loved you, Ms Pat, Mr. Joe and Marlo! And he would tell me stories of his “glory days” playing baseball or running around town! Inevitably, the story would end with “my Daddy had to come help me drag the VW off the stump” or “Momma made me my favorite dinner!” And Marlo, you have to know he loved you as only a big brother can. He loved you all so very much!!!

I loved Chris for his dedication to helping others! He had an amazing way of making you want to be in AA, even if you weren't an Alcoholic. 🙄. He helped hundreds and hundreds of men get sober and I pray they are still on a sober pathway. He loved to be in nature. Adored taking his boys hunting!! Would get so excited about it, he couldn't wait for you guys to get to him! Also loved the ocean. Water in general! 🙄 But Spending time with his kids, in the time that I knew him, was so important to him! You all really were his everything.

Always know that I will ALWAYS love your Daddy, he will always be in my heart. Even though we couldn't be together, we were still friends. He could ALWAYS make me laugh! I will miss him everyday. You are all in my heart and my prayers. I love you all!
