

Christa Angelina Franquez

November 17, 1985 - March 31, 2017

In the world today, it seems that we all need to be typecast by who we are, by those with whom we associate or our mindset. That would be most difficult in the case of our daughter, sister, mother and friend, Christa Angelina Franquez. Angelina boldly marched through life in a manner we loved fiercely, even at the risk of being baffled at times. If she was working for you, she was loyal and hardworking; as a friend, she was loyal now and forever. As a mother, she would leave nothing to chance in her role as a protector and provider. As a daughter and sister, there was never any doubt, ultimately, that she loved with no conditions imposed. Angelina was colorful, forthright and at ease in any situation. A chance meeting was always seen as an occasion for her to make a new friend. She was equally at ease in celebrating her faith in God, whether it be at Crossroads Church or the quiet dignity of the Mass at St. George Catholic Church. Angelina was born in Forest Park, Georgia November 17, 1985. She is the daughter of Trinidad Gomez and Patricia Ann Thompson Gomez. Her most passionate role in life was as mother and protector of her boys Christain, Joshua and Mason. She was the much loved and even at some times, perplexing sister to David S. Robinson, Hillie L. Peacock, Mathew M. Lopez, Jesse V. Lopez and Miranda L. Flores. Funeral arrangements are by McKoon Funeral Home at 38 Jackson Street in Newnan. Friends may call on the family on Tuesday, April 4, 2017 beginning at 12:00 noon. They welcome your attendance in celebrating the unique life of this dear woman. There will be a graveside service following at 2:30 PM at Forest Lawn

Memorial Park led by Father Henry Atem as her earthly remains are laid to rest. Thankfully, the part that her family loved will forever be a part of their lives as they cherish their memories of her until the day when all will be joined in the life to come. “ Christa when you walk in a room. Your smile brightens the whole room up, I knew you was an angel when I first met you, when we talked you always told me the truth, and kept things straight foward, the conversations we use to share, I will cherish forever, you always said we need to get our boys together to play, and I promise I'm going to make that still happen!! I'm still so shocked, but I know GOD makes no mistake!! Fly high, beautiful ange!!! From peaches in the boys!!!! My boys and your baby son are first cousins and I will make sure my boys take care of all your boys, I promise!!!
