

Cindy Jean Dingler

March 12, 1957 - July 3, 2014

Cindy Veal Dingler

Cindy Jean Veal Dingler, 57, of Newnan, passed away at The Cancer Treatment Centers of America on Thursday, July 3, 2014, after a valiant battle with Breast Cancer. She literally gave it her all – she was the strongest person that most people had ever met. She was a devoted Christian, wife, mother, GaGa, sister, sister-in-law and faithful friend.

Cindy was born to the late Bobby Joe and Marianne Brown Veal in Newnan on March 12, 1957. She had a passion for life and enjoyed her grandbabies more than anything on Earth. She absolutely adored the name they gave to her, GaGa, and nothing made her happier than to hear those sweet little voices calling her name. She will be missed beyond comprehension. She worked in the banking industry for many years before transferring to the Coweta County School System so that she would be home with her babies a bit more often.

Married on June 15, 1974, she is survived by her husband of 40 years, Clifford Edward Dingler, Jr. “Eddie,” who she loved dearly and thought could make or fix anything. She is also survived by her daughters, Kacie (Glenn) McWaters and Brooke (Dustin) Barnes. She is also survived by her pride and joy, Walter Glenn McWaters, Jr., Reese Kaitlyn Barnes and Gracin Jean Barnes. Cindy is survived by her brothers: Joey Veal, Nickey (Lisa) Veal, Randy (Sheri) Veal and sister, Renay (Guy) Rumohr, nieces & nephews; Nicholas Veal, Joshua (Nicole) Rumohr, Olivia Rumohr, Kelsey Veal, Jay Veal, Brent Veal and John Thomas Veal. She is survived by her mother-in-law for 40 years as well, Louise Payton Dingler.

Cindy was a patient at The Cancer Treatment Center here in Newnan, GA. She was so happy there and was treated so well. She wasn't fond of the reason she had to go there but did love the people and the facility. She loved her time at the bank and at the different schools and spoke frequently about her times there and the people she loved from each place. She had been with the Special Education Department working with Preschool for some time now and has made amazing, lifelong friends. She was a very happy person and very well loved by all who knew her.

The family will receive friends on Sunday, July 13, 2014 from 4:00 pm to 6:00 pm at McKoon Funeral Home, 38 Jackson St., Newnan, GA 30263. Graveside funeral service will be Monday, July 14, 2014 at 10:00 am at Forest Lawn Memorial Park, 656 Roscoe Rd., Newnan, GA 30263. Cindy asked that donations be made to The American Cancer Society, 301 Kelly Drive, Suite 3, Peachtree City, Georgia 30269 and Coweta County Special Olympics, P.O. Box 280, Newnan, GA 30264.

Condolences may be sent to the family online at www.mckoon.com

Cindy's family wishes to thank each and everyone for their love, concern, support and endless prayers during her extended illness. No matter the gesture, each act of kindness and love was deeply appreciated and did not go unnoticed.

“ I want all of you to know how much we truly appreciate your love and support during my sisters hard fought battle. She expressed daily how BLESSED she was to have so many who cared for her throughout her illness. She never gave up and she lived to the end! She would want all of you to "enjoy every day"! My last text from her said "thank you for being my little sister"...words I will treasure forever...I want to say thank you Sis for being my big sister and a sister to so many! We will miss you every day! You will be with me every morning "having coffee" :)

“ Thank you all for writing such sweet things about my mother. I loved reading them tonight. No one should ever have to go through what she went through. She gave it her all. Thank you to all who supported her through this journey. She kept every card that she ever received. I never realized just how many friends she had. It feels good to know that your mother was loved by so many people.

“ To Cindy's loved ones, As we are all suffering a great loss, it is of great comfort to know all of Cindy's earthly tribulations no longer exist. She made such an impact on so many people, not only during her life previous her illness, but she continued to be such a wonderful witness during her illness. She was dedicated to everything she attempted and was filled with so much love and compassion. I am so blessed to have known Cindy and receive her sweet Christian love. Somehow, she and Pam allowed me to hang out with them! Those wonderful times I will treasure forever. It is my prayer that you will be comforted and lifted up, knowing how much she was loved and respected by so many. Much love to everyone Cindy touched with her sweet loving heart. When I think of Cindy, I am reminded of the "Footprints" poem, and what we are promised. Please know that you are in my heartfelt thoughts and prayers.

“ I worked with Cindy years ago at First National Bank in Newnan. She was one of the kindest people I've ever known. I will always remember how much she loved Eddie and those Girls so I can only imagine the love she had for her Grandbabies. I pray that God comforts you with all your wonderful memories and helps you through this difficult time.

“ To Eddie, Kacie, Brooke, and the Veal family: I'm so sorry for your loss. Cindy was an exceptional wife, mother, grandmother, sister, and friend. There was nothing that she loved more than her family. She lived a selfless life of service to others, and people were drawn to her loving, kind spirit. You will face difficult days without her, but have peace in knowing that Cindy's spirit is with the Lord whom she loved so deeply. She is truly missed by many. Love, Colleen “ Eddie and family, I am so terribly sorry for the loss of your sweet wife and mother. I have known Cindy since we attended Arnco-Sargent School many years ago. Cindy was such a sweet person. I don't think I ever saw her when she did not have that beautiful smile on her face. The Lord will comfort you in the days ahead. Remember that Cindy will be waiting for you with that big smile and open arms.

“ Dear Kacie, Brooke, and Eddie - I am so sorry to hear of Cindy's passing. She was a great lady who loved The Lord and was so kind to everyone. We worked together for many years and shared many laughs as well as tears during this time. She loved her family with all of her heart. I always called her "my sweet Cindy" because she was such a sweet and loving person with a huge heart. Just think of all the wonderful memories that you have to cherish forever. While I know your hearts break please be comforted in knowing that Cindy is whole again and in the arms of Jesus. With love, Kathy Justiss
