“ Mrs. Judy, Jeff, Kim & Andy, I am so sorry to hear about the loss of your dad. I just found out today. Growing up on LaGrange St. he was like another dad to us all in the neighborhood. Just keep your strength up for your selves but mostly your mom. I never remember a time that they were inseparable. The last time that I passed thru our old neighborhood, I seen them walking "hand in hand" in the front yard & of course all of the old memories came back to me. I hate that it comes to this to have conversation with you all. You all will be in my prayers & always remember, "Even though your dad is not with you here on Earth, he is & will always be with each of you in memories but most of all in your hearts!" He Truly loved each & every one of you ! God Bless you !!!!!

“ Just learned about your loss from Bruce. So sad to hear it. Although I didn't know him well, I could tell he was a kind and gentle soul. My thoughts and prayers are with you as you and your family deal with this great loss. He is in a much better place with no earthly worries!

“ Clarence rest in Peace my friend, God was probably in the need of another good carpenter to help out his son Jesus on many projects that you'll have ready when we are all reunited.. Our thoughts and Prayers goes out to Clarences beloved family and friends, Clarence always had something good to say when I'd see him on the job and always made me smile and we'd cutup. When Clarence and Jeff finished our basement, my wife Holly got to know Clarence well and she really adored him and kept him in coffee while they were here and it's funny how something like a cup of coffee can lead to a good friendship when two meet. Our Love goes out to you all. The Brown Family

“ My prayers are with you all, I know what you are going through, Uncle Clarence will be miss very much just like my daddy, he reminded me soo much of my daddy. but now they are together.and they are in no pain, Just remember this and God with give you strength to carry on, just like he did me, not a day goes by that I don`t think of my daddy but just remember they are in no more pain . and will rest in peace together. I love you all, and give you my sorrow but please keep your strength up cause one day we will meet them again. Love you all Kay Hemming
