“ Ms. Claudia was Chick-fil-A Fairburn’s grandmother while I was there. She always was the sweetest person and had such a servant heart. She’s also the reason I started putting honey on my chicken sandwich and I’ve never gone back. I’m honored that I had the chance to work with her the entire time she was at the fairburn chick-fil-a. She will be deeply missed.

I had never put honey on my sandwich or chicken biscuit until Monday morning. It wasn't something I knew she did, nor did I know CFA had honey, yet I found myself Monday morning at the dine in trying honey on my chicken biscuit. Thank you for sharing and it just means my grandmother's still finding ways to show me she is with me.

“ I worked with Claudia at the JCPenney Regional office in Atlanta in the 1970's. She gave me so much guidance as a younger person. We kept in touch for years. Apparently not enough on my end. I didn't know she was ill. She will be missed.

Claudia was a wonderful neighbor and friend. We spent many evenings chatting on her patio, riding golf carts looking for deer, trips to hear each others Christmas programs. What delightful memories I have of my beloved friend.

Eternal rest grant unto her, O Lord.

Heart-felt condolences to all her family. We all know how much you will miss this special lady.

“ I did not know Claudia well, but I didn't have to as her faith, sincerity, and warmth were apparent . Passing her in the hall or chatting in the elevator at Newnan First Methodist, I knew I was with someone special. I will miss her warm smile and presence. My deepest sympathy to her family.

“ *Claudia was a lovely lady with a beautiful smile and joyful personality. We will forever be grateful to her for choosing us to sell her Village Park home to. We enjoyed visiting with her when she came back to her old neighborhood to visit with the neighbors. We know she loved her family deeply and loved to brag on them. I met Claudia 10 years ago when we both volunteered to work in the kitchen at Newnan First UMC. I knew she would a long time friend before the end of the first day. Claudia was a beautiful person, a true faithful servant to God. She was a wonderful friend and will be missed so much. I pray God be with her family during this time of mourning.

Carole and I have known Claudia from Beecher Hills Baptist Church, and when we all attended Southwest High School (class of 1962) in Atlanta. She has always attended our high school reunions and it was always fun to see her there. She was a very funny lady and we will miss her.
