“ To all the Harris family-We were saddened today to hear of Clemit's death. We would have been there to see you had we known. Clemit and "the store" were such a big part of our childhood and our lives. Love to you all.

“ We were so sad to hear of Mr. Harris, but oh so glad that he is rejoicing with the Lord even as we speak. He has been shed of that fleshly body that had trapped his spirit and his mind for so long. Take comfort in knowing that he knows exactly who he is and where he is right now. And I can't wait to see his smiling face again. He was always so kind and always had a smile for you when you walked into his store. When we first moved right next door, our son got a big kick out of being able to go to the store and sign his name on that ticket. Mr. Harris always treated him like a little grown-up. Mrs. Peggy, you are such an inspiration to all women everywhere. Your strength and love for Clemit as you cared for him day after day is a great testimony to all that know you. Your rewards in heaven will truly be great!!!! Our prayers go out to your entire family. ><>

“ Dear Mrs. Peggy, Sharon, Nicole, Derek, Mallory and Family, I am so sorry to hear about Mr. Clemit's death; but happy he is not suffering anymore. All of you are in my thoughts and prayers. I have missed Mr. Clemit ever since he closed the store. He was such a help too so many people and always had a helping hand for those that came into his store. May God comfort you and give you strength now and in the days ahead. If I can ever be of help in anyway, please call me. Love You, Syble
