“ I can't find the words to express my feelings. I know a mother shouldn't have to bear what you are Nan. I am sorry for your loss. Cody was like a younger brother to me. I will not be able to attend the ceremony, however I do plan on coming to visit with you all soon. Once again I am so sorry. And Candace, please keep strong. If you need anything, just let me know. I LOVE YOU ALL!

“ Words can not express the deep sympathy that I have for the whole family. It's so hard to understand the "why", but we have to trust and have faith that God will somehow work His divine plan through all of this that will include you all receiving peace and comfort. Please know that you have friends who are here for you, not only today but in the future. Cody will continue to live in the hearts and minds of all of those that had the honor and priviledge to know him.

“ Our hearts and prayers go out to the family of Cody. We just lost our daughter at the age of 24. just 2 months ago. We know exactly what you are feeling and going through. Ilts not easy but with Gods words and comfort he will carry you through this difficult time Just trust in the Lord for all your needs. Even though we didnt know Cody we wanted you to know you are not along and we are praying for you all. In christ name. Amen

“ I cannot even find the words to express how shocked and sad I am. I loved Cody so much and have many wonderful memories like the time I took him and Connell with me to my pottery class at Callanwolde. He made the cutest little pot that sits on Kelly's mantle and every time I look at it, I remember how much fun we had. Cody was the finest example of a level-headed, respectful young man who was so talented, so smart, and so unbelievable generous. He was the purest of spirit and I have seen his love in action with so many of his friends and their families. This is the saddest loss--so difficult to accept and understand. I love you guys and will continue to keep you in my thoughts and prayers.
