Dr Sheahan, and Family. I am so deeply sorry for your loss. I know there aren't any words to say to make the hurt any less. Dr. Kevin Sheahan has been my physician for maybe 15 years . You have taken care of me for so long. I only saw this notification today or I would of came in person to pay my respects to you, and your family. Even though I never met your son, reading this obituary it seemed he was following in your four steps. That is a great honor. God called him home and I believe he will watch over your family . My prayers are with your' family and all who feel his loss

Dr Sheahan has really kept me alive after an accident 25 years ago . I have no doubt his son Conner would have followed in his footsteps. I remember little Conner coming to se his dad at work. He always wore a smile when he saw his Dad. I pray for peace for Dr Sheahan and his family. It will be done in Jesus name.

“ I'll never forget the freshman that stopped in his first race to help his teammate who had passed out. That was Connor. Over the next years, Connor would continue to carry a genuine concern for others and show many more moments of true sportsmanship and integrity. Connor was kind, respectful, and fun. I have so many wonderful memories of him. We are lifting you in our hearts and prayers. Much love, The Golden Family

“ We are so thankful that Sean and Connor became friends - literally the very first day Sean arrived at Pope for cross country practice. Watching them grow together as friends, athletes, and young men was such a joy. Connor was always quick to offer a smile, words of encouragement, or a helping hand - whatever the situation called for. We are so happy that Sean and Connor spent time together before returning to school in January. We hope you will be comforted by your many wonderful memories. We will be keeping Connor and your whole family in our hearts and prayers for the weeks and months ahead.

“ Connor was the first to offer a smile, help, or encouragement to anyone who knew him. He was funny, smart, humble, and kind. He was exactly the kind of person you want your kids to be friends with and he went out of his way to include others. He was a great athlete and competitor but that never trumped encouraging and cheering for others. He was loved by all and will be missed tremendously.

“ I remember Connor coming over to our house to play me in pool. He played me the next time he came over. He told Neil he was eventually going to beat me. After each game he shook my hand firmly, looked me in the eye, and said, "good game." I remember Connor coming to my house to apologize to me for something he felt he did wrong. We were on our back deck. He was pleasure to have as a guest. We loved having him over. We wish we could have more time with him.
