“ Dear Dick and Family; I lost my twin. We have been called twins since forever, and now she went to be with the Lord. As sad as we are here on Earth, just think how happy she is. Being her Aunt was my privelege, and I will think of her and miss her every day. What fun we had in her visits to me in her home State of Wiscosnin. Love you Darling Niece. Popsie

“ To Dick and all of Connie's family, Martha and I extend our deepest sympathy. How well I remember the wonderful times in Ed's basement bar with the entire Campion clan. As I loved Ed, I loved his family, and felt like a part of it. We and the world have lost a caring and gentle soul who tried to make life better for everyone. We will miss her. “ George and I are sending you extra love at this, your time of sorrow. The depth of sorrow is unmeasureable and seems to be unbearable, but just believe and know that your loved one is at peace with her maker and that she is still hovering around you giving you love, the love that you are used to receiving. Just Know that she does not want you to hurt because she loved you, she does not want you to be sorrowful, because she loved you and she does want the best for you now and forever. Lisa, you are like my sister and I love you, Brandon and the rest of the family. George and I are here for you, if you all need anything, just ask and we will be there.
