“ Coming to Georgia to visit you and experiencing everything we did together was so amazing and I'm thankful I got to do it. You were just an awesome guy. Thank you for all the memories we made together. I promised in January and I still mean it now. I missed you before this and I miss you more now.

“ I'm sorry i was never there for you little brother. Your were 10 when i left for the military. I rarely get a chance to see you or the rest of the family. I will be home one day to build a great farm for you and everyone else. Your more than welcome to visit with my grandma and grandpa. I remember babysitting you and lightly bulling. Then the time your mom called while were listening to music, Your mother will forever hate me for that night, but its one of my favorite memories. Second favorite memory is when your mom called the County on me. Its funny now, but not when you 16 and your dad had the death look. There was was also the time i carried you to bed, our dad was off working late and Julie just got. As i picked you up and carried you to bed, in your sleep you kissed me and called me dad and said you loved me. It shocked me and made my mother Julie laugh. This Christmas i got to see you. The first time i had been home in 3 years. It was great to see you and your shy, meek smile. I remember talking about hunting and you werent sure if you could still hunt. I research and found a way for you to go hunting, but i forgot to tell you you could still bow hunt. Well, if heaven allows you take vacation, i'm going hunting in November. We'll catch us a nice buck, no promises though.
