

Courtney Alicia Meyers

June 13, 1985 - August 8, 2025

Ms. Courtney Alicia Meyers, 40, of Newnan, Georgia, formerly of Charleston, South Carolina, went home to be with her Lord and Savior on Friday, August 8, 2025.

Courtney was born on June 13, 1985, in Charleston, South Carolina, to Rachel Jenkins and the late Jerry L. Brown. In addition to her father, she was preceded in death by her beloved brother, Fontaine D. Jenkins.

Courtney grew up in South Carolina, with saltwater in her veins and a love for all things Lowcountry. She was happiest with a crab net in hand or gathered around a bushel of oysters, swapping stories with family and friends.

More than anything, Courtney loved her family. She was a devoted mother to her three children, Tremaine Jr. "TJ" (18), Ty'ler (14), and Tatiyanna (12), and they were the joy and pride of her life. Her love for them was fierce and unconditional. She also held tight to her roots, cherishing the bonds of her large extended family, the wisdom of her grandmothers, and the fellowship of friends who became family over the years. She will be deeply missed by all who knew her.

She is survived by her three cherished children, Tremaine Jr. "TJ", Ty'ler, and Tatiyanna; her devoted mother, Rachel Jenkins of Newnan, GA; her sister, Sherrell Brown of Newnan, GA; her brother, Arthur "Leroy" Brown(Celia) of Sharpsburg, GA; her sister-in-law, Alison Rhodes Dewitt(Tim) of Donalds, SC; her nieces and nephews; Talia, Nazyr, Della, Marie, Vera, and Arthur. Her dear grandmothers, Claire G. Brown of Charleston, SC, and Leomia Jenkins of Ladson, SC; and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, and extended family who will forever treasure her memory.

A service to celebrate Courtney's life will be held at Mt. Gilead Methodist Church in Sharpsburg, GA, on August 15th at 3:00pm.

The family invites friends to share condolences and memories online at www.mckoon.com.

Courtney lived her life with a big heart, a ready smile, and a faith that carried her despite the tough times. Though our hearts are heavy, we rejoice in knowing she is now at peace, watching over us from her heavenly home. And when the oysters are good and the water is calm, we'll think of her - smiling, laughing, and telling us all to pull up a chair and stay awhile.

“ Courtney! Cousin! This really hit me hard. I am still in disbelief. You always lite up a room with your smile everywhere you enter. You was always kind and had a loving soul. My oldest memories of you, that isn't from videos or pictures of us, was when I was in the 1st grade at Stiles Point Elementary. You were in the 5th grade and I was still new to the school. You were in your class line on your way to lunch and I was in my class line on the way to special area. As soon as I saw you, I ran out og the line to go give you a big hug while screaming your name. My teacher tried to get me back in line with my class but I refused to leave your side. Instead of you walking me back over, you made it so I could sit in the lunch room with you during your lunch and agreed to walk me back to my class when lunch was over. That is just a testament to how kind and genuine your spirit was. You knew I wasn't comfortable in my new environment and made your little 1st cousin comfortable. That day gave me the confidence I needed to make friends. I love you Courtney and you will truly be miss. Aunt Rachel, Sherrel and Arthur, I am sorry you are going through this pain right now and I am here for you whenever you need me. We have a new Angel watching over us. I love you all.

“ Courtney’s perseverance through life was always awe inspiring. She had a smile that could light up a room. My favorite memory of Courtney was the night we officially became sisters “ish”. Courtney, myself and Ms Rachel were the last gals on the dance floor of Celia and Leroy’s wedding. It was so much fun as the DJ kept playing “one more song” because he saw that we did not want the night to end. It was more than a night of dancing, we bonded that night and I was grateful to be a part of the family. There were parts of Courtney that I didn’t get to experience, but motherhood, sister ship and being tied to this big crazy family created a space for Courtney and I to connect. I wish I reached out more. I will learn from Courtney to tell the ones I love that I love them more, to share our hurts so that no one feels alone in the struggles of life and to share the light that I have been blessed with from the Lord so that it might shine hope into the lives of the people around me. Rest in Peace sister, I’m so sorry I didn’t call more often. 🕊️🌸💖

“ My deepest condolences to Rachel, Sherrell, Leroy and the rest of our family. When I think of Courtney I always picture her and a siblings as little kids that I would occasionally babysit. She was quiet but I will always remember once you could get her to laugh or smile it was beautiful. She will be missed. Love you all Karen White

“ I’m sending my sincere condolences to the Myers family from Charleston, South Carolina. Courtney was my second cousin, because her father Jerry and I are first cousins. Her grandfather Arthur (Ace) was my uncle, because his sister Dena Forrest is my mom. I can remember when I was younger and we use to visit uncle Arthur and aunt Claire and Courtney along with her other siblings would be visiting as well, she was always quiet. That house 🏠 was always a gathering for great food, love, and fun. My sincere condolences and prayers are with the family as we go through this difficult time, knowing that God has us in his loving arms. With Warmest Regards And Love 💕

“ I was saddened to hear about Courtney's passing. I will always remember her wonderful energy and her deep, soulful way of looking at people and the world. She was always the easiest one to please when I was asked to sit the kids. Sending hugs to Rachel, Sherrell, and Leroy. Prayers to the rest of our family as we say good-bye. Love always.
