“ I had the honor of working with Curt 40+ plus years ago on a daily basis for a number of years. She was a true friend and I considered her my second Mother. We always enjoyed "meeting up" with each other through the years and "catching up". God bless each of you as you mourn the loss of your loved one.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. "Miss Curtis" holds a very special place in my heart. She carried my first two newborns down to the car when they were discharged at Newnan Hospital in 1976 and 1979. She was a very sweet person.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I had no idea Curt was ill, or so close by. I will always remember her with affection for the role she played in my life. I hope you will be able to take some comfort from the knowledge that there are many who will miss her along with you.
Sincerely, Rita
