

Daniel Lee Bloomquist

December 18, 1974 - December 20, 2021

Daniel Lee Bloomquist, age 47, passed away unexpectedly in his home on Monday, December 20, 2021. He was born on December 18, 1974, in Yale Connecticut to the late Richard J. Bloomquist and Rosella Cotter Bloomquist.

Dan is survived by his sister Kristy Malone and her husband Mearran Malone, brother, Richard Bloomquist, nephew and niece, Malik Jones and his wife Destine and Nakiya Ham-Bloomquist and uncle, Liam Cotter and his wife Jean and so many other family and friends.

He never knew a stranger, everyone that ever met Dan could see that he was a genuine, honest, sincere, and passionate man that would do anything for anyone. He held high expectations and was extremely dedicated in school and in his work. Through his school years he played baseball, track and field, and football up to his graduation at Greenwich Central High. Dan then with his enthusiasm decided to further his education by attending Adirondack Community College and then SUNY Potsdam where he earned a bachelor's degree in Art and Sociology, to later gain employment within the Pharmaceutical Industry. As he gained knowledge and experience in this field, he quickly moved up and was promoted into leadership roles which eventually led to Dan doing contract work for himself. Not only was Dan a hard worker, he enjoyed many hobbies: cooking, driving his cars or trucks or bikes (whether it was a mountain bike, a dirt bike, or a street bike it didn't matter) he loved them all. Dan was perfection; everything he owned was appreciated and taken care of, just like he did for his family and friends. He was a social butterfly, truly the life of the party. God Bless you, may you rest in peace.

The service celebrating Dan's life is Thursday, December 30, 2021, at 4:00 PM in the chapel of McKoon Funeral Home at 38 Jackson Street, Newnan GA 30263 with Minister Mearron Malone officiating. Condolences may be expressed to the family online at McKoon Funeral Home & Crematory.

Aaron did an amazing job. The tributes were wonderful. Kristy, you are a rock. Your Mom and Dad would be so proud of you. You know they are taking good care of Dan. Our family is getting a lot smaller here on earth, but we are gaining a lot of angels in heaven who I am sure are watching over us. Thank you Aaron for making this service such a beautiful and a wonderful tribute to Dan. Hugs to all...

“ Dan the man! AKA Dantastic, I miss you brother. I will always cherish all the loving memories we made together cooking in your kitchen, chit chatting over opening our own restaurant, and laughing uncontrollably. I will ALWAYS remember the times we had at Tomorrowworld, especially when you snuck into the camp grounds and all I could hear was your LOUD laugh coming from a mile away. It just made me light up with joy as your presence always did to me. Thank you for making me so happy whenever I was around you. Thank you for loving me and caring for me in all your special ways. "The fantastics" will always love you.

*Love,
Kat, Carter & Rod*

“ I haven’t stopped thinking about Dan since I heard the news. He came from a home of love and laughter, his parents were the definition of true love. Going to his house as a teenager was always full of belly laughs and the most welcoming atmosphere. Dan was one of a kind. He was so much fun and there was never a dull moment with him. He loved to dance, he has epic moves. He was Mr. GQ, always dressed to impress. He was always up for an adventure, a good party, or just hanging out. If Michael Jackson was on, so were his feet 😊. So many memories... sporting events, dances, prom, weekends, after school hanging out, summer nights (summertime by Will Smith), trips to Saratoga, high school graduation, college life together, and even lived together for a little bit. I loved this guy, I can’t think about him without thinking about a memory that doesn’t make me smile. Don’t get me wrong, he could be super stubborn, but he was mostly so much fun. He loved his family, he loved his friends, he loved life, he loved his hair and he loved his car. I love you big Dan. You were so much of my childhood, you were front and center in my life during that time period. I was Ren and you were Stimpy! Thank you for being a huge part of my life journey. I would say rest easy, but I know you are dancing like crazy up there. I hope when it is my time, you are waiting with my loved ones to welcome me home. ❤️

“ I met Big Dan, as I affectionately called him back in 1998 where we worked together in the pharmaceutical industry. We've been friends since, riding motorcycles endlessly and virtually all over California. Then, I had my first of 3 daughters, age 1 and would bring her, and my second daughter to Dan's to watch NFL games. His bird, "Flip" entertained my daughters at each visit.

Dan was a person who was always positive, funny, witty, give his shirt off his back for ya kind of guy.

We would ride in groups increasingly more over the years. We both had and loved Hayabusas. His favorite bike. He taught me to ride dirt bikes. One day in Gorman there was mud on a trail. We all went a different way, but Dan went through the mud. About an hr later, thete he was all full of mud, bike included, couldn't tell the color of his attire or his bike. Funny day.

Dan was great with kids, although never wanted his own. He will always be missed and as we all continue to ride bikes, trucks, etc., Dan will forever be in our memories. We will ride for him. Sincerely, Chazzer as he would call me.

“ Dan was a long time client and then friend of mine. I have so many “Dan The Man” stories I could write a book. I’d see him every month and then we started chatting on the phone weekly. When he moved from LA to ATL we kept in touch. He was one of my most favorite people in the world. There are so few like him. He really was a friend to all and always kind. My life and the world is a little less bright without him but I’m so grateful for every moment I had with him. Miss you dude. Catch you in the next lifetime.

From the house of love and laughter, food and faith another Bloomquist is gone far too young. I was blessed to have known each member. Dan stood out with his strength and stability and I'm so glad to have a part in his life story. Kristy and Rich know I love you both and my prayers are with you and your family. Wish I could be there to help you.

“ I remember being in English class with him (I sat next to him normally) and out of nowhere he smiled at me and says “hey can I share your textbook with you? I forgot mine.” He always treated me well and made me valued. Genuinely a kind, funny and smart guy. I will miss his energy in the world. My thoughts and prayers go out to all of his family and friends. Rest In Peace my friend...until we meet again. ❤️

“ So very sorry for your loss. He was way to young. I will always remember the fun we had when he went on camping trips with us.

“ I met Dan when we were both working at acClinical Trial company in Los Angeles. Dan was on a team of clinical trial coordinators. I was the Regulatory Compliance Coordinator. We got along so well we became good friends. Over the years we kept in touch and would go to a famous sports bar to watch football. My love of sports fit well with Dan's and we had fun and laughs at the bar. For a few years after I moved to Ohio we lost touch, but a year ago we reconnected. We'd talk every week or two and the class went on for an hour or two every time. I will miss his laugh, his compassion, and most of all his optimistic view of life. He had become my third son. Rest in pease my dear friend.
