“ John, Miriam and Corry I don't know if you remember me. I took care of Daniel when he was in the NICU at Cobb hospital. I was so sorry to hear about your loss. Your family has always held a special place in my heart and I have thought of you all often through the years. I will keep you in my thoughts and prayers through the coming difficult weeks and months. Love, Deena

“ Daniel rode with us at CORRAL, and he was a joy to teach! He always had a happy voice for us, and it was amazing to watch his relationship with our horses grow in little steps every visit. We will miss his smiling face. Our sincerest condolences to your family.
