“ Worked with Danny for many years and had an opportunity to play golf with him and his brother . It was an enlightening experience that I remember some of his on how to play the game. We had just teed off #1 at Orchid Hill golf club , Danny hit the ball left, right, left right over the green and back, eventually ,Danny picked the ball up and placed it in his pocket and I stated that he had not completed the hole.His philosophy was I paid for this game and I'll play it the way I want, and I want everyone to know that he enjoyed every moment that day on the course as well as I did. I have shared that philosophy with many of my friends and I'll always remember Danny and how he has an effect on my life and the way I perceive how golf/life should be played. Our thoughts and prayers are with the family and friends and he will always be in my memory!

“ I remember Danny all the way back when he was 12 yrs old. He was a funny kid, always joking around & being funny. I remember when he got put off the school bus for being a clown. He thought his daddy would be mad at him, but he wasn't. Danny loved the GA Bulldogs. Back when we were kids, they came on the radio, not TV very often. I remember Danny being so excited over the Bulldogs game, that his mother made him turn it off. She let him turn it back on in a few minutes because he looked so pitiful. Danny loved his family & his friends & he is now happy at home with the Lord. God Bless you Danny.
