“ Thomas and I have lots of memories of Darrell and Brenda and family since our sister-in-law, Carolyn Miller is Brenda's sister. Darrell had a wonderful sense of humor but who could tell? The Daniel family into which he married had an over the top ability to have fun and laugh with each other. Still, we remember many times when Darrell quietly cracked us up with a story about something that had happened. He was a kind and gentle man who did a quality job at whatever he worked on-the job he got a paycheck for and the creative items he made from wood. Our porch has a bench he made from a twin bed headboard and footboard, the Pledge Allegiance written on wooden slats and a bumble bee catcher all of which he made. He was such an asset to our church and did many behind the scenes jobs there. We will miss his gentleness and his faithful spirit.
