“ David and I were in the same grade from Elm Street Elementary School on up, and we also lived on the same street for a number of years. He was as kind and good- hearted as they come, always with a great spirit and smile to match. Sympathies and prayers from Sam, Lance and me to all of David’s family on the loss of this very special guy.

“ David will be sadly missed. I first met David years ago. His daughter, Lindsey was about 10 years old and became friends with my two daughters. His wife worked with me and for me selling real estate. Through the years I would chat with him every so often. I have nothing but good things to say about him. One time he put together a metal building for me behind my office. It was hot outside. It took a little longer than expected, but he was as nice as could be. He said he liked doing things like that. He'll be missed.
