“ Dave had such a jovial personality. He was our neighbor. I'm going to miss him coming home for work and hearing him call Kiki his cat. On weekends we could always see Dave cooking on his smoker and sometimes he would just share a meal without any reason. If I called his name over the fence, he would answer without hesitation. Always ready to help. An all around super neighbor.

“ Dave and I shared a common bond for our love of cooking, It has always been a creative outlet...serving our family the love that emanated from our kitchens, for better or not! I don't know how he could eat so many lobsters, but it was enviable.

There is a big, empty spot at the table now and I will miss my big, messy Cousin forever. God bless, Dave, you were one of a kind!

You are sorely missed. We love you.

“ I was shocked to hear of the passing of David. I always had a good time when he would come to see his dad. To all of his brothers and sister, I felt like all of you were also my family. My deepest heartfelt sympathies are with you all. I am saddened by his passing. Eugene Tiller

“ Years ago when Kelley introduced her new boyfriend to me, I instantly knew why she adored Dave so much. He was so eager to meet Kelley’s friends and listen to Kelley and I rant and rave about whatever was going on.

As time elapsed, Dave would always greet me with a smile and would share his positive attitude with me. Whenever I asked him for a favor, he cheerfully obliged. When I was struggling and he was driving me to my parents, he told me to focus on the positives in life. I appreciated his kindness so very much.

I wish my deepest condolences to Kelley and those close to Dave.

“ Dave and Steve were the first friends that Keith and I made as a married couple when we moved to Atlanta 40 years ago. Through the years, Dave helped us build our houses, had great times on the lake, he watched our kids grow up, and was the best friend to Keith. As time and years went by, we were always in touch. We loved Dave and will miss him dearly.
