“ Mrs. Dee Reynolds, I just found out today about David i was so sad to hear that. He was the nicest man i had ever met. You two treated me like part of your family and i thank you for that, I hate that i am 400 miles away to be there. He was a great man and will be missed dearly. Renyolds family you are in my thoughts and prayers.

“ Miss Dee, Mr. David was a very special person to me and I will always remember him for the times I walked around your beautiful store and dreamed. Both of you will be remembered with great fondness for many reasons. I would like to leave this quote for you sent to me on the death of our daughter in 1994 by your son David. "Greive not, nor speak of me with tears, but laugh and talk of me as if I were beside you---I loved you so-- 'twas Heaven here with you." You're in my prayers and I love you. Pat

“ Miss Dee and family-I remember as a small child riding my tricycle through the house, and hitting the edge of my parents' dining room table. My mother, Lavonia Bryant Richards, put me in "time out" because I had chipped the table that she and my birth father, O.D. McClendon bought when they married in the 40's. I will never forget her telling me that she had my dad had saved their money to buy the table and chairs from Reynolds furniture. In fact, we still have that dining room suit, and it is a treasured possession. I also remember going with her to Reynolds Furniture store to purchase furniture; lamps; and accessories over the years. It was such a treat to go in there-Mr. David always had a hug and a smile for me and my brother, and followed my career through the years with such interest and sincerity. I will miss his smile and wave at church every Sunday, but I know that he is in heaven, still as interested and concerned as he was here on earth. He is still with us-just beyond our sight and hearing.

“ Dear Family, I know your loss and I am thinking of all of you. My first encounter with Mr. David and Miss Dee was 37 years ago when David and I were getting married. Miss Dee asked me down to the furniture store to look at two prints we had gotten as a wedding present and asked if David and I liked them. We were so excited to get them that Mr. David said Dee and I want to give you the other two. Those prints have moved with us all these years and I still treasure them. Mr. David was such a fine man and proud father and grandfather. We will all miss him. Love and prayers to all of you, “ Like many, I knew Mr. Reynolds (who always insisted I call him David) from Newnan Country Club. Working in the Pro Shop I would see him often, and he would always drop in to tell a story or just say a quick hi. More often than not he would give me a hug and say "I just stopped in to say hello, and make sure you know that I love you." I never had a relationship with my grandfathers, but for the five years that I knew David I felt like I did. My love and heartfelt sympathy to you all. Bree

“ Dee, I remember my last visit with you and David while waiting for x-rays and he told me the story of the "bird shots" in his chest from a childhood accident and you were waiting to see if he could have the x-ray. Seeing both of you, as you always seemed to be together, always made my day. Please be strong and and I send my love to you and your family at this difficult time. Pauline
