“ David and I were born in the same year to sisters, Ida Mae and Nellie Irene. We are cousins but we rarely managed to connect with each other. I am so sorry to hear of his passing and sad that I did not manage to talk to him before he died. We spent one summer together with the third sister, Mary Lou, when we were 15 years old, in a Log Cabin in Black Mountain, NC. Our Aunt Mary and Uncle Hugh Hurst taught us both to drive on those mountain roads. I remember it as being one of the best summers ever. My best wishes to all of his family. Linda Segars
