“ Praying for you all. Debbie was a beautiful lady, always a kind word for everyone. She made me feel loved when we went to church together. She always knew when you needed one of her hugs. She will be missed.

“ Deborah was such a beautiful person, inside and out. She could always make you feel special, and loved. It was just one of her gifts. Another was that beautiful voice. I never heard anyone sing God's praises as beautifully as her. Sending prayers and love to her family.

“ Debbie you are such a rich part of my childhood and i will miss your smile and laugh out loud funny jokes alot. I have missed them alot. But you are survived. Your 3 daughters are everything one would hope for their children. Funny, sweet, fierce, soft, kind, and they love unconditionally. All three of them. Your spirit lives on in your legacy. Have fun in heaven. Until we meet again
