

Deborah Freyman

August 20, 1951 - June 30, 2016

Deborah Anne Freyman, 64, of Senoia, Georgia passed away Thursday, June 30, 2016 in Newnan, Georgia. She was born August 20, 1951 in Austin, Texas to the late Joseph and Dorothea Aaron. Debbie worked as a special education teacher's assistant at Western Elementary where she touched the lives of many children and coworkers. Debbie held a lifelong passion for animals, especially horses. She was always happiest in the barn with her beloved daughters and a menagerie of horses, dogs, cats, goats and other assorted pets. Her love of horses created lifelong bonds of friendship with other avid horse owners such as Jeanne Carter who became a willing counterpart in mischief over the years. Debbie was a wonderful mother instilling the values of love and hard work in her two daughters. Debbie endured the hardships of life with kindness and a good sense of humor that captivated all those around her. Her presence brightened the lives of family and friends. Debbie will be greatly missed by all. Debbie is survived by daughters Amanda (Jeff) Scogin and Kimberly (John) Norton, sister Donna (Frank) Pudysz, brothers Bill (Cyndy) Aaron and Bob (Shanti) Aaron, many nieces, nephews and friends she made along the way.

Funeral services will be held Saturday, July 2, 2016 at 2:00 PM in the chapel of McKoon Funeral Home with Bill Aaron officiating. Burial will follow at Forest Lawn Memorial Park. Visitation will be one hour prior to service time on Saturday.

“ I had the pleasure of substitute teaching for Mrs.Freyman sometimes and got to chat with her at lunch when I subbed for other teachers at Western. She truly loved her job and her students and was always so upbeat and positive. I want to express my deepest sympathy to all of you and am praying for you at this time.

“ I too first met Debbie (and her twin who became my bride) about 35 years ago at the Catholic singles club. It was never a dull moment with Debbie and her fast talking. She was one of the most caring people ever. I will never look at another animal without thinking of her. Rest in peace, Debbie, the battle is over.
