“ I would like to offer my condolences to the Young family and also share a comforting scriptural promise that very soon death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore....Revelation 21:4

“ Dear Joan and Mr. Aaron, I will remember you and your family in prayer at this crossroad in your life. I remember this very sweet, caring, precious Christian Lady. When I worked at the bank, she would bring us a platter of slices of different kinds of cakes for us to enjoy at different times of the year. It didn't have to be for a special occasion. She just did it with love. I still have some of the sweat shirts she painted for me. Mrs. Inez will always have a special place in my heart. With love and prayers, Margaret Mulkey

“ Dear Mr Aaron and family, You and your family are in my prayers as you entered this season of mourning for Mrs. Inez. What a precious loving and giving saint of God she is. I pray God is wrapping His loving arms of comfort around you and your family. I thank God for providing a way through Jesus Christ's death on the cross, that if we truly believe, trust and obediently seek Jesus, we will be saved and with the Saints like Mrs. Inez who have gone into Christ's eternal glory in paradise before us. I pray that you will cling to Jesus for strength in the time ahead and for the peace that surpasses all understanding to guard your hearts and your minds. May God bless you and keep you. In Christ's Love, Cathy Terry

“ It was an honor to be welcomed into this loving home for the best home cooking ever! To be loved by Miss Inez and Pop , made my life better. To receive note after note, was one of the ways she put her love in action! I was one of many, many people that she reached out to.. I will see you both in Heaven one day soon. My love to all the family...especially Pop and Joy!

“ Uncle Aaron, Jill, Jimmy, Joan, and families, I wish I had the words but, I don't. I was always pretty good at reading them. Never developed the talent for putting them on paper. Know that you're all in my thoughts and prayers and that I wish, more than anything, that I could be there for you today. I Love you all, Robby

“ I work with Jay Adcock at The Pep Boys DC in McDonough, GA. I never had the honor of meeting Inez Young but know that her greatest Legacy is her 4 Children, 5 Grandchildren and 8 Great-Grandchildren who owe their lives, family and careers to this lady. God gives his Grace to the One who gave Life to these. God Bless You All. Richard Hostetter

“ Uncle Aaron, Jill, Joan, & Jimmy (and families), My heart and prayers are with you. Heaven gained such a wonderful angel today and while our hearts are broken, I smile as I picture the reunion in heaven. After so many years of praising our Lord, serving our Lord, and loving our Lord I can only imagine the smile on Aunt Nez's face and the song in her heart as she rejoices in Heaven with Jesus and with the family that has gone before her. I love you all dearly and you continue to be in my prayers. Deb

“ Heaven is a sweeter place today with the presence of "Miss Inez." She has meant so much to so many people. I doubt that there was ever a new member at Flat Creek who did not receive a welcome letter from her. She was known for this ministry. May God's blessings be upon Mr. Aaron and all family members during the passing of this saint of God.
