

Dianne Hicks Flanagan

July 31, 1943 - July 25, 2023

Dianne Hicks Flanagan passed away in a peaceful sleep on July 25, 2023. Dianne was born at Crawford Long Hospital in Atlanta, Georgia, on July 31, 1943. She was the daughter of the late Frank Lee Hicks and Dorice Strickland Hicks. She is preceded in death by her husband Walter ("Bud") Flanagan II, and sons Walter Wade Flanagan III and Kelly Flanagan. She is survived by her son Patrick Flanagan (Darcy); sisters Gail Hicks, Beverly Weaver (Bill), and Debbie Greathouse (Ed); grandchildren Caroline, Katie, Hannah, Sophie, Zoe, Chloe, and Rowan; three great-granddaughters; and many beloved nieces and nephews.

Dianne graduated from West Fulton High School in 1961 and married Bud in 1963. They moved to Douglasville in 1971, where they resided for over 50 years. Dianne retired in 1994 from a 30-year career at Ft. McPherson. She was an expert in military databases and computer systems, analyzing and reporting on Army unit capability and readiness. She was instrumental in developing computer models to support our armed forces in Desert Shield and Desert Storm.

Diane earned exceptional performance ratings as a civil servant for her innovativeness, creativity, dedication, loyalty, humor, and ability to communicate and work with all levels of officers. These attributes extended to all parts of Dianne's life. She was a confidante, counselor, supporter, mentor, and friend to many. She is loved and remembered for her charming personality, quick wit, loving and giving nature, and her melodious Southern accent.

A graveside service for the family will be held at a later date.
