

Dolores L. MaGuire

March 1, 1945 - March 14, 2013

Dolores (Dee) Lamanna Maguire, age 68, of Newnan, Georgia passed away peacefully at her home March 14, 2013.

Dee attended Palmetto High School in Miami, Florida before entering the University of Miami in 1963. It was here that she became a proud member of the Singing Hurricanes, the first known show choir in America. She retired as a teacher from the Coweta County School System after 17 years of service. Dee was preceded in death by her two sons, Don Maguire and Doug Maguire. She is survived by her sister, Nancy Weitzman, nephews and nieces, Michael Lamanna, Robert Lamanna, Cynthia Bentancourt, Debbie Smith, and Cheryl Logue. Dee also leaves behind many devoted and caring friends, neighbors, her family of Singing Hurricanes and her beloved dog, Honey.

In lieu of flowers donations may be made to the American Cancer Society, 301 Kelly Drive, Suite 3, Peachtree City, GA 30269. Condolences may be sent to the family online at www.mckoon.com

A Funeral Mass will be held at St. Mary Magdalene Catholic Church in Newnan at 10:30 on Friday, March 22, 2013. A reception will follow Mass in the church fellowship hall. The family will receive visitors at that time.

“ To Dee's family and friends. I am deeply saddened by the news of Dee's passing. We are contacting our classmates who graduated from Miami Palmetto Senior High Class of 1963 for our 50th Reunion. Dee was in Choir with me (and many others), was a member of the Triple Trio 9 girls who performed while we were in high school. She later was one of the original Singing Hurricanes at the University of Miami. We were in touch with Dee over the years and on behalf of the Palmetto Class of 1963 Alumni , I send sincerely sympathy to family and friends. Trust she is resting in God's Loving Care and reunited with her sons. Sandy Allen Oltz, Chair, Reunion Committee PHS Class of 1963, Miami, FL.

“ To Dee's Family: Dee was one of my dearest friends/colleagues. We worked together for most of her 17 years and had some memorable times away from school too. I didn't know Dee was so close to being reunited with her boys, and my heart is saddened. I take solace in knowing she was a great teacher, friend, and lady. God Bless you and we will forever keep Dee in our thoughts. James and Sharon Fowler

“ To Dee's family, What an amazing woman! It was truly a pleasure and such an honor to be involved in her care and help her transition comfortably and so peacefully. I'll never forget her strong spirit and easy laughter that she shared with her family, friends, and caregivers. Please don't hesitate to let us know if there is anything that we can do to help you. You're all in our thoughts and prayers.
