“ Dear Rabideaux Family, We've known Donna since her days at Braelinn Village in Peachtree City. Both "Mozart" and "Schroeder," and we, just thought "Ms Donna" would always be there. Only aware of her increasing health issues at our last appointment I assured her of our prayerful concern. Now that is directed to you, her family and the others of her "pampered clientelle" who, along with us, took her for granted. Blessings to all. Sincerely, Bob & Ruth Ann Tyler & "Schroeder"

“ I was shocked to hear of Donna's passing. She joined Newnan Kennel Club in 1996 and has always been there for us helping out at the shows and serving as our Sunshine Committee Person. We will all miss seeing her sunshiny face at the meetings and shows. Peace.

“ Dear Rabideaux Family, I was devastated to hear of Donna's passing. I just adored her. We are friends from the Newnan Kennel Club and worked together on club activities quite often. I will really miss her. I am also the new President of the Club. How wonderful of you to have donations come to our club in Donna's memory. Any money received we would like to donate to a canine cause in her memory. Do you have any suggestions? If not, we will thoughtfully think of something that would be appropriate to honor Donna. You can contact me at the e-mail above or call me 770-716-5972. If there is anything the Kennel Club or I can do to help you in any way, please don't hesitate to ask. With love to you and Donna, Joni
